Cox the entire West has been after him to open his campaign in that part of the country instead of in his own State or in the East. And, as your correspondent reads the signs, the West may cease its urging and be prepared to welcome Gov. Cox very soon after he confers with the members of the National Committee, receives his official notification and squares his shoulders for the fight. It is not at all unlikely that his first speech will be delivered in San Francisco, probably in the very hall in which he was nominated.

In the last two days many telegrams have arrived from all parts of the West urging him to come to this place or that, and assuring him that he will get a welcome which will amaze him. Late yesterday his secretary, Charles E. Morris, who attended the convention, called the Governor by long distance from San Francisco to say that city insisted

Among the letters which came to the Governor to-day were three from men whom he had pardoned, who had come out of prison and are now making good. "I have a number of these letters," he said, "and they give me a peculiar satisfaction. They tell me that I was right when I issued the order releasing these men from the order releasing these men from prison; that I was right in my esti-mate that they were capable of be-coming good men. They have done well, these fellows, and I like their letters. We have a really modern prison system in our State. Four separate conventions were scheduled to be held-The Forty-Eighters proper, the Labor Party, the Single Tax Party and the American Constitutional Party. The first three even though they may not amalgamate, were expected to run along the same lines.

The American Constitutional Party, organized by William R. Hearst, is playing a lone hand, having already been repudiated by the Forty-Eighters and the Single Taxers, and so far ignored by the Labor Party.

Abolition of privilege was made the slogan of the convention of the Committee of Forty-Eight in the keynote

State Motor Vehicle Inspector and Two Others Accused of Conspiracy.

Robert T. Grogan, an inspector of motor vehicles in the office of the Secretary of State at No. 127 West 65th Street, has been held in $5,000 ball by United States Commissioner Hitchcock, and two other men are under arrest, as the result of a triple investigation by Federal, State and city officials into the thefts of autos.

These officials are seeking to learn whether the men arrested are members of a band that has been stealing automobiles in other States and selling them here. The mon are charged with conspiracy. Claude Stephens, No. 548 West 65th Street, and Morris Ginsburg of Fallsburg, N. Y., are the other two members of the arrested

Assistant United States District A:orney Schwarts and Lieut. Sergeant Martin Owens of the Automobile

Martin Owens of the Automobile Squad questioned Ginsburg. They said he told them he had wished to buy a seven-passenger car for not more than $1,000. He said he met Grogan in a saloon in Monticello, N. Y., and was advised to come to New York to get a good car "cheap."

Two weeks later, he said, he met Grogan again in a saloon near the Secretary of State's office and was introduced to Stephens, who sold him a car "sight unseen" and gave him a bill of sale. Later, it is alleged, Grogan gave him a license for the car, handing it over the counter in the Secretary of State's office, eliminating the routine and delay which other applicants for licenses have to endure. Stephens and Ginsburg were arrested Thursday morning in 'the automobile by Detectives Owens and Horan after a chase in which shots were fired.
